Your Own Special Team

HOW A FLOCK of geese flies is very similar to our group energy of the New World.

“As each goose flaps its wings, it creates an uplift for the birds that follow. By flying in a “V” formation, the whole flock adds 71 percent greater flying range than if each bird flew alone. When a goose falls out of formation, it suddenly feels the drag and resistance of flying alone. It quickly moves back into formation to take advantage of the lifting power of the bird immediately in front of it. The geese flying in formation honk to encourage those up front to keep up their speed. When a goose gets sick or wounded, other geese drop out of formation and follow it down to help and protect it. If it becomes able to fly again, the group catches up with the flock or launches out with another formation.”

Because we are rapidly moving into the dynamics of group energy now, with no leaders and with shared responsibility, we are also finding that all the answers and insights we desire are totally within us as well.

And what we seemingly cannot find an answer to within ourselves, somehow gets activated when we combine our energies with others.

We have all heard of soul groups or twin flames...those who vibrate very closely to the way that we do. As mentioned earlier in this book, when we were created at the very beginning, we split off as sparks of energy and light from our Creator, the Source. As this original spark that separated began to separate itself, our soul groups were then created. Some soul connections are stronger than others, as these are the souls who originated and were created, then, at the same time. As the souls began separating their energy and dividing it and infusing it into new and different realities and vehicles to express itself, more soul groups were then created from this original soul group. But the original soul group resonates the strongest with itself.

This is why when we encounter certain individuals, we feel as though we may have known them forever. And many times, these same individuals are supporting us in so many ways at soul levels, even though we may feel that they have dealt us a difficult hand and are our mortal enemies! We are just playing the game and have been in this drama and “play” in the 3D reality, and could not clearly see the beautiful and loving support for our purpose and expansion that they were offering us.

In the New World and higher realms, this is not the way it is. In the higher realms there is no need for polarity, as everything is clearly and visibly going in the same direction of Source and light and all polarity has been integrated. The veil is no longer there. Much of this is already occurring as we rapidly accelerate into the New World and higher ways of being. In the higher realms, the masks come off. And even though we may at first not recognize each other, as the forms we are inhabiting may not be what we were expecting, we are most certainly coming together as planned before our arrival.

When we encountered individuals in the 3D world who were part of our soul group, we immediately felt a connection. Because of similar blueprints that Source energy was running through within soul sisters and brothers, we were able to connect more easily with each other and most certainly felt much more of a resonance.

And in the 3D world, we possessed limited thinking with limited ego minds. We needed to have a “story” and drama to place energy into so that we could have a frame of reference that was easy for us to wrap our minds around.

So we frequently interacted in romantic relationships with our soul partners, as we were feeling this connection to Source through certain individuals. Or perhaps we felt great love and connection to some of our family members or even our business partners.

During this time of the Shift Of The Ages, many of us are present here on planet Earth as we had a desire and need to experience, represent and be a part of this grand event. Therefore, many of our “oldest” and closest soul family members are here now in the physical. Some are even here who have not inhabited human form for a very long time, or ever, for that matter.

In the 3D world, we were conditioned through limited thinking, ego, and social mores to believe that we should be with just “one” at a time……in the “romantic” sense. When we “died” or made our transition in the old 3D world, we were always reunited with our soul groups in a wonderful and glorious way. We felt united again and much more whole and complete. This is occurring now, but as we are “dying” while we are alive, we get to meet up with our beloved family once again, but this time while still in the physical!

In the higher realms, we possess much less ego and much more of Source energy. As we are rapidly integrating the higher realms now, this is who and what we are becoming. So how does this all relate?

This means that we will be with more than one partner at a time and that we will joyfully all be together again in our original soul groups. The veil is gone. We will rapidly begin to see who we really are at soul levels and begin again to play, laugh, love and create together. We will have multiple partners. No, I am not talking about the 60’s free love and group sex. This is a much higher level of being with very little ego and a great love for each other. We get to be together with more of our soul family, and all at once, sharing, respecting and enjoying each other, as we are most nearly, all one.

As many of us have always known, we will also be inhabiting several “soul homes” together. These homes will be dispersed throughout the planet, enabling our soul groups to always have a place of residence wherever they may be while performing their “purposes.” Again, allowing for a continual union with our beloved brothers and sisters, just as we have always done at the higher levels and after our transitions through death.

But there is more to this explanation. In the New World we can create whatever we want whenever we want it. The word “need” will become obsolete. You may already be experiencing this, as at times it seems that just what you need arrives for you very rapidly and easily. It may only begin for you by finding everything you need right in front of you at the store without having to look, or perhaps you just meet the right person or stumble upon the right thing while going about your day. This is only the beginning, as eventually we will become used to this way of being and it will become our New reality as we easily and readily become conscious and very intentional co-creators.

In addition, through the ascension process, we are rapidly becoming whole and complete with no need to attract or become involved with another human being to balance us out and bring to us what we are lacking within ourselves. This was the way of the old 3D world. Like energies attracting like energies in a balancing dance of completion.

Part of the ascension process also involves a time when we find ourselves alone and may not feel particularly comfortable about it. Before we are able to be in unity with our soul families, we must first learn to be comfortable being alone, and this “training period” of being alone and facing our discomfort about it can be quite challenging. But once we go through it and find ourselves content being alone, we will be ready for the glorious union that arrives right on its heels.
So then, we will no longer “need” another to fulfill what we are lacking or to support us or to be there for us or to make our lives complete through “need.” And being so connected to Source and the all, we will not “need” another because we are afraid of being alone. In the New World we will connect with our soul brothers and sisters for the simple and exhilarating purpose of enjoying their energy and loving who they are. We will adore each other and come alive while in the presence of our soul group members, not wanting to be without each other as we are so “one.”

And yet there is another pivotal reason for connecting again with our soul groups in the physical, and this reason goes back to the very beginning. We have always come together with similar and loving energies in order TO CREATE. This is a higher, older and more evolved way. Does this mean that we don’t get to have sex anymore? Well, it’s certainly not for me to say, but I can tell you that sex is a sure fire way to access the higher realms and connect in a divine way through that incredible kundalini energy, and I personally do not feel that I want to be giving it up! (smile) It creates an incredible energetic space and opening for creating as well. Part of the joy and reason we choose to inhabit physical vehicles is for the purpose of FEELING and experiencing with all our senses. This is one of the joys and benefits of inhabiting a physical vehicle.

And you will find that your sexual encounters will become more and more an all over body experience, as your unions with your soul partners serve to activate an incredible energy that takes your breath away.

So as we evolve rapidly, the nature of our relationships will evolve as well. Yes, we will have multiple partners and all love and accept each other in a beautiful and divine way, as at some level we all remember being one. And as we come together in this New and evolved way, we will be focusing on creating together as TEAMS. And these teams, just like the geese, will revolve around support.

In order to have something to occupy itself with, Source needed to create. Part of the ascension process, then, involves coming together in teams and bringing forth a project. We knew this time was coming for planet Earth. Haven’t we always felt that there was something that we came to do, only we just could not remember what it was? If you have come far in the ascension process, you are now at the place of connecting to your “team” and getting ready to bring forth your “project.”

Part of our team also involves members from the stars. In the now higher realms, we are very much closer to the star beings in the non-physical, and they are here and ready to become partners with us as they bring us their expertise and knowledge, blending together with our human energies in a beautiful and perfect dance of creation.

Group energy is the way of the New World. There are no “leaders” in the higher realms, as we all contribute equally to the whole. And as we are creating realities by making everything up and believing it to be so, there is no right or wrong. All of the answers and the clarity lie within all of us. We are here now to come together in teams of equal representation to bring forth our contributions for the creation of the New World. In addition, the New human does not shoulder all responsibilities. We do not have to do everything ourselves.

In this module, Your Own Special Team, there are no interactive exercises in your Remembering Journal as we can’t force our connection to or the arrival of our own special team. We will attract it and connect with it when we are “being” it and vibrating it...in other words, when the time is right. When you are ready, and when the “temperature” for your aspect and piece of creation is right on the planet, all will come together in perfect synchronicity and divine timing for your project to occur. The dots of your special team will connect, and when they do, it feels glorious! I can assure you, you will want to weep with joy. The members of your own special team have been having experiences and preparing for a while now, in order for all to come together when the time was right. As all time really exists in the present, you have been connecting at higher levels and communicating and working together anyway. So then, a pivotal point will be reached when all your energies culminate in one perfect place and time. You will be brought together so that your energies can combine as they will then be matching each other and meeting, to bring forth your group contribution.

We really came here and we really exist to laugh, love, play and create together. It was all intended to be fun and joyous! As the ascension process eventually brings us back to our original innocence, being childlike and having fun is our natural way of being...let’s enjoy it together!
